

Saskatchewan Trucking Association Scholarship Application

The Saskatchewan Trucking Association (STA) Scholarship Program is intended to assist individuals aspiring to build a career as a Commercial Driver. It is essential to review the updated basic criteria. This scholarship provides an opportunity for those dedicated to enhancing their skills and knowledge in the trucking industry.

Our basic criteria are as follows:

- Must be full time high school student or have GED equivalent, that are 18 years old and reside in the province of Saskatchewan.
- Application must be received no later than June 15.
- All the application sections have been completed.
- Educational transcripts are submitted with application.
- Enrollment confirmation received from an STA authorized driver school.
- Applicants are only eligible to win the scholarship grant once.
- A condition of accepting the scholarship is completing a work mentorship with a carrier company.

Applicants are invited to apply for one $3,000 scholarship, Winner will be notified in writing. By submitting their application, applicants consent to being recognized at the STA's Annual Awards Banquet & Gala, in newsletters, and on various website publications. All awards will be disbursed directly to the applicant's confirmed school to offset their training costs.
